

Britain in the 1990s

Home Life in the 1990s

- * How many children on average did each family in Britain have?
- * How many families had a television telephone?
- * What percentage of parents were married?
- * What kind of technological advances were there in the home?
- * How many people had computers in and their homes?
- * How did families spend leisure time?

Work Life in the 1990s

- * What was the average weekly wage for men?
- * What was the average weekly wage for women?
- * How much of the workforce was female?
- * How many people were unemployed?
- * How many people worked with computers?
- * How did the internet affect working life?

Technology in the 1990s

- * What inventions were there?
- * How did the internet affect life in Britain?
- * Who invented the World Wide Web and when was it invented?
- * What advances were made in computing?
- * What advances were made in transport?
- * How did music technology change?

Population in the 1990s

- * How many people lived in Britain?
- * What percentage of the population was of non-white or mixed race origin?
- * What percentage of the population was over 65?
- * How many births and deaths were there?
- * What was the average life expectancy for women?
- * What was the average life expectancy for men?

Popular Culture in the 1990s

- * What clothes did different groups people wear?
- * What trends were there?
- * What music was popular?
- * Which films were popular? of
- * What TV programmes were started?
- * What leisure activities did people enjoy?

