

Can you order these key events on a timeline?

Margaret Thatcher becomes Britain first female Prime Minister

The coronation of Queen Elizabeth II takes place after the death of her father, King George VI

World Wide Web first available for the public to use

Decimal coinage system (pounds and pence) replaces shillings

Rationing ends nine years after the end of World War II

Commercial television starts in Britain

Three day working week enforced to save electricity

Colour television starts in Britain

The first motorway, the M1, opens

The first (very large and expensive) mobile phone goes on sale

Race Relations Act introduced to stop racial discrimination in public places

First CDs go on sale

Funeral of Diana, Princess of Wales

Voting age in Britain reduced from 21 to 18